Catholic Communication Campaign
May 16-17

This collection raises funds in order to reach hearts of people and spread the Gospel. Its essential mission is to contribute to the process of evangelization by contributing to activities in relation to television, radio and other media. Fifty percent of these funds are sent back to the national office where grants are then given. The remaining portion is retained by our diocese for our own local communication projects.

Busca en el cuadrado las palabras de este mismo color en el siguiente texto sobre el ORIGEN DEL CULTO DE LA VIRGEN DEL CARMEN.

Según la tradición, durante la celebración de Pentecostés, algunos fieles que investigaban la vida de los profetas Elías y Eliseo en el Monte Carmelo, actual Israel, fueron convertidos al catolicismo tras la aparición de una nube en la que iba una imagen de María. En ese monte, fundaron un templo en honor a la Virgen y la congregación de los Hermanos de Santa María del Monte Carmelo, la que pasó a Europa en el siglo XIII luego de su persecución en Tierra Santa.
